Monday, April 20th | The Shoe Project
Monday – Friday YWCA Gettysburg & Adams County
The Shoe Project is a collection of shoes illustrating the journeys faced by domestic violence and sexual assault survivors. These shoes show a physical representation of the women, men, and children who are victims of domestic violence or sexual assault. This has become a critical public health problem that is too often kept as a dark secret that needs to be brought into the light.

Tuesday, April 28th | Day of Transformation
1 PM – 7 PM Gettysburg Hotel. For more information visit, www.ywcagettsburg.org/community-outreach/empowering-women/day-of-transformation

Partners for this event include the YWCA Gettysburg & Adams County, Gettysburg Hospital Auxiliary Thrift Shop, HACC-Gettysburg, The United Way of Adams County, South Central Community Action Programs, and Survivors, Inc.
